

That's Fare!

Before trolley companies used tokens and tickets as fare, passengers paid with money on the car. Look at the Pittsburgh Railways Co. Interurban System map to see the location of the stops and then use the chart to calculate how much money you need to give the conductor to reach your destination. Each stop is 5 cents. Watch out for transfers! Sometimes you can't get where you want to go without changing trolleys. You can transfer to a different trolley line at Washington Junction for 1 cent.

Fare:	5 cents	5 cents	5 cents	5 cents
